Summary

I am a Full Stack developer wanting to make people's lives better through technology. I want to work hard at creating solutions for clients and companies, and enrolled at Northcoders last year to make that happen. Beforehand I spent over ten years working as an award-winning freelance Composer. I am immensely proud of the skills I carry from my previous career, and feel best placed in a collaborative and creative environment.

Interests

I started to run every day during coronavirus lock down, and feel ready to train for my first half marathon. I've always admired good practical design, and creating websites has sparked an interest in learning more about good user experiences and effective design. Music is still part of my life and I continue making music as part of my ongoing artistic practice.
